

Supporting Patient care with Electronic Resource (SuPER)

Take charge of your health care!

We are inviting you to participate in a trial to determine the usefulness of a web-based program designed to aid people with rheumatoid arthritis in making decisions to start or switch biologics.

You may be eligible to participate if you:

- Have a diagnosis of Rheumatoid Arthritis
- Receive/have received ongoing care by a rheumatologist
- Are discussing starting or switching biologics with your doctor
- Have reliable access to the Internet

The study is completed online and by telephone. Any information you provide will be completely confidential. An honorarium will be provided for your time.

If you think you may be eligible and would like more information, please contact:
